POLICE INVESTIGATE SUSPICIOUS DEATH IN ALLIED GARDENS

On Monday, October 3, 2016, just before 7:00 a.m., the San Diego Police Department received a call from a citizen who reported an unconscious male in the middle of a baseball field at the Allied Gardens Recreation Center, in the 5100 block of Greenbrier Avenue, in Allied Gardens.

Patrol Officers and Fire personnel responded and found an unconscious white male who appeared to be approximately 30-years-old, lying on his back in the grass area of the field. The male was cold to the touch and was pronounced dead at the scene. There were no obvious signs of trauma but after closer examination, officers noticed a small potential wound in the torso area. The homicide unit responded to investigate what is now being handled as a suspicious death. The medical examiner's office will conduct an autopsy to determine the cause of death.

Officers and detectives are in the area searching for witnesses. Activities at the recreation center will resume as normal and the field where the body was located should be available after 12:00 p.m.

The decedent's name will be released after confirmation of his identity is made and the family is notified of his death.

Anyone with information related to this incident is encouraged to call the San Diego Police Department's Homicide Unit or Crime Stoppers at 888-580-8477.
