Search Warrant Served For Illegal Marijuana Dispensary

San Diego—On October 26th, 2016, at approximately 0600 hours, the San Diego Police Department's Narcotics Unit served a search warrant at 688 Hollister St. Located at this address were an illegal marijuana dispensary and two associated businesses.

The SDPD Narcotics Unit, in partnership with the City Attorney's office, are in the process of investigating all illegal marijuana dispensaries operating within the City of San Diego and as a result, information was gathered that led to a search warrant being obtained for this location.

As a result of the search warrant, approximately 100 lbs. of marijuana, multiple types of edibles, and an undisclosed amount of concentrated cannabis were seized. In addition, 3 weapons (2 Handguns and AR-15 Style Rifle), cash, and business records were also seized.

At this time, 2 people have been detained and no arrests have been made. This investigation is on-going.
