

Good Morning Commissioners:

Attached you will find two documents from District 1 United, a coalition of communities of interest, concerned citizens, community planning groups and environmental organizations committed to the preservation of District 1, the Coast & Canyons district as currently constituted.

Please distribute among the staff and Commission and enter for the record.

Thank you for your careful consideration.