

Clairemont does not need to be divided into four districts. To get anything done in a unified way community members would need to involve all four council members. This is insane.

Susan Mittman