

We have always been one community with the same needs and work cooperatively to compromise our differences. Do not divide us. Keep communities and geography together.

Laura Kwartler