Police Investigate Homicide in Jamacha/Lomita

San Diego – On October 22, 2021, at 1:29 p.m., the San Diego Police Communications Center received multiple 911 calls regarding a shooting at 8200 Sabre Street in the Jamacha/Lomita neighborhood.

When officers from Southeastern Division arrived on scene, they found a male down in the street with at least one apparent gunshot wound to his upper body. San Diego Fire-Rescue personnel arrived and performed CPR, but unfortunately, the male was pronounced deceased at the scene. The male has been identified, however his name is not being released at this time. He is described as a 36-year-old mixed race male.

San Diego Police Homicide Detectives were called and are currently investigating the incident. It is early in the investigation and detectives are still determining the circumstances surrounding the man's death. Preliminary information indicates that the suspects in the shooting may be three dark skinned heavyset males in a white sports utility vehicle. There is no further suspect information at this time. Detectives are attempting to locate evidence and interview any potential witnesses.

Anyone with information regarding this incident is asked to call the Homicide Unit at (619) 531-2293 or Crime Stoppers at (888) 580-8477.
