

You are invited!

Learn about the Crime-free Multi-housing Program

WHO: Property management staff in the City of San Diego who would like support in working together to keep your apartment communities a safer place to live.

WHAT: Please join the San Diego Police Department and a variety of community partners for a FREE training session on Crime-free Multi-housing. This is a no-cost benefit to owners and managers of properties within the City of San Diego. The training will provide you resources to make your apartment community a more desirable place for your residents, lower the crime incidents in and around your apartment community, and help you attract and retain residents who will take pride in living in the apartment community.

WHEN: Monday, November 6, 2023 at 8:30 AM-4:30 PM
Lunch will be provided.

WHERE: Neighborhood Policing Division, 4020 Murphy Canyon Rd 92123

WHY:

- An opportunity to build a positive, proactive relationship with the Police Department.
- Learn from experts in the fields of narcotics, lighting, environmental design, gangs, graffiti, liability and more.
- This program has demonstrated success in San Diego and nationwide.
- There is everything to gain.

For more information, please contact:

Officer Luis A. Roman, Lroman@pd.sandiego.gov

Marsha Lyon, mlyon@saysandiego.org

You will need to confirm your attendance for the training.
If you need to cancel, please notify us.