

The proposed redistricting boundary along Genesee Avenue will divide a united community. We have a planning group, a community association, schools in the same cluster, community events on major holidays.

It makes NO SENSE to divide south University City in this way.

Feroza Ardeshir