

I live in south University City. I have friends on both sides of Genesee. We have the same interests, the same middle and high schools, the same sports teams, the same library, the same planning group, and have operated as the same community for so many years. It makes no sense to split the community politically.

Larry Geyerman