Police Investigate Forcible Sexual Assault in De Anza Cove Restroom

San Diego – San Diego Police investigators are searching for a man of interest connected to a sexual assault in a public restroom. A woman was physically attacked and sexually assaulted in a De Anza Cove restroom last night. The victim told investigators she had just finished using the restroom when she was attacked from behind by an unknown suspect. The victim was discovered by a passerby who entered the restroom after the attack. The suspect had already left the area when the victim was discovered.

San Diego Police patrol officers and Sex Crimes Unit detectives responded to the scene and began an investigation. The victim was transported to a local hospital to receive treatment for her injuries. It is still early in the investigation and detectives are gathering evidence.

The person of interest is described as a darker-skinned male with a blue mountain bike with black rims and silver spokes.

Anyone with information is asked to call the San Diego Police Sex Crimes Unit or Crime Stoppers at (888) 580-8477.
