Police Investigate Infant Homicide in Colina Del Sol

San Diego – On Wednesday, November 9, 2021, at 11:18 p.m., the San Diego Police Communications Center received a call reporting that an infant was unresponsive and in need of medical attention at a residence at 4400 Maple Street in Colina Del Sol.

Officers from Mid-City Division responded to the location and immediately began providing CPR to the infant until relieved by San Diego Fire-Rescue personnel. The infant, a 3-month-old female, was transported to a local hospital. Unfortunately, the baby girl was pronounced deceased at the hospital. San Diego Police Child Abuse detectives were notified and began an investigation.

San Diego Police Homicide Detectives assumed the investigation. The child's parents, Brandon Copeland, 21, and Elizabeth Uzman, 22, were arrested for the child's murder.

We will not be making any further comments or providing additional information at this time.

Anyone with information regarding this incident is asked to call the Homicide Unit at (619) 531-2293 or Crime Stoppers at (888) 580-8477.
