Presenters: CRB 2nd Vice Chair Taura Gentry & Member Nancy Vaughn

This year marks the 25th Anniversary of NACOLE. Attendees were from all over the world. At the NACOLE conference, core competencies for civilian oversight practitioners were discussed and attendees were provided with informational resources. NACOLE offers training, community trust, institutional culture and correctional oversight, and collaboration. It offers various awards.

Board Member Nancy Vaughn reported that she was looking forward to the Board being able to use a book written by two of NACOLE's past presidents titled, "Police Misconduct Complaint Investigations Manual," to learn more about investigations. The conference sessions are very intense and lasts all day. This year NACOLE was offering a corrections track.

Executive Director Moseley, 2nd Vice Chair Gentry, and Member Vaughn will present information from the conference to the Board and Internal Affairs at an upcoming special meeting of the CRB.

VI. UNFINISHED BUSINESS (DISCUSSION/ACTION): None

VII. NEW BUSINESS (DISCUSSION/ACTION)

A. Proposed Administrative Standing Rule on Redacted Case Summaries (Discussion & Action Item)

Rules Committee Chair Doug Case reported that the Committee has been working for several months on a process where they can provide the public with more detail about their cases without revealing the complainant, officer or others involved. He further reported that at the Board's last meeting, the Board was given a sample of what the summaries might look like. At that meeting the Board provided the committee with feedback on the redacted case summaries and the elements for the summaries. The Committee added to include the chart of the items the teams reviewed and if there was a change in findings, the team should include that information in the summaries. The summaries will be included as an appendix in the Biannual Report to the PS&LN Committee and as a link on the website. We are hoping to give the complainants more details on their complaints with the rationale for the Board's finding.

B. Proposed Elements for Public Case Summaries (Discussion & Action Item)
