San Diego County Crime Stoppers and the San Diego Police Department's Homicide Unit continue to look for leads in the three year anniversary of the unsolved homicide of Ernesto Gonzalez.

On Saturday, November 30, 2013, at approximately 11:27 p.m., Ernesto Gonzalez was shot and killed in the 7100 block of El Cajon Boulevard. According to witnesses, Gonzalez was working as a security guard at Chelato's Bar and Grill. Gonzalez was standing in front of the business when two suspects approached and shot him. The suspects are described as males wearing dark clothing and were last seen running eastbound from the scene towards 72nd Street.

Surveillance pictures of the two suspects are on page 2 of this release. The video can be seen at the following YouTube link:
