- Encl: 1) City Response to San Diego County Grand Jury Report Entitled, "Campaign Law Enforcement & Training: City and County of San Diego"
  - 2) City Council Resolution R- 310692

Pursuant to California Penal Code section 933(c), the City of San Diego provides the following responses to the findings and recommendations pertaining to the City of San Diego that are included in the above referenced Grand Jury Report:

FINDINGS 01 THROUGH 05

Below are the Mayor and City Council's responses to Findings 01 through 05:

Finding 01: Changes to the appointment process for SDEC commissioners could promote civic confidence in the SDEC and its effectiveness.

Response: The Mayor and City Council disagree with the Grand Jury's finding.

The process for choosing individuals to serve on the Ethics Commission is consistent with the appointment process for approximately 40 boards and commissions to the City of San Diego. All individuals nominated to serve as an Ethics Commission member are confirmed at a public meeting of the San Diego City Council, during which members of the public can attend and express their opinions on any matter related to the qualifications of an individual nominated to serve in the capacity of a Commissioner.

The City of San Diego Municipal Code Section 26.0404 specifies background and experience requirements for Commissioners to help ensure a Commission that is qualified and free of bias. At least two Commissioners are to be attorneys in good standing; and at least one Commissioner shall have experience related to an elective governmental office by having held an office, been a candidate for an office, or been a campaign treasurer (or other high level position) for a candidate for office. The Municipal Code also protects against a predominance of Commission members from one political party to ensure an unbiased, de-politicized Commission. Additionally, "the Commission shall reflect the diversity of the City which it serves."

Finding 02: Revising the City Charter to remove the City Council's authority over the SDEC's existence would preserve SDEC as an independent body.

Response: The Mayor and City Council agree with the Grand Jury's finding.

Finding 03: Lengthening the term of commissioners could improve the commission's effectiveness.

Response: The Mayor and City Council disagree with the Grand Jury's finding.

We agree with the Grand Jury's opinion that a longer serving Commissioner would improve his or her understanding of complex issues over time. Commissioners must understand and make determinations on activities regulated by complicated state and local governmental laws. Currently, Commissioners can serve two consecutive terms totaling eight years. Under the Grand Jury recommendation, the total time a Commissioner could serve is six years, thereby reducing Ethics Commissioners' potential service-time by two years.

Finding 04: Changing the name would more accurately reflect the commission's duties and responsibilities and avoid ambiguity.

Response: The Mayor and City Council agree with the Grand Jury's finding.

Finding 05: Allowing subpoena power would enhance the investigative process and could shorten investigations.

Response: The Mayor and City Council disagree with the Grand Jury's finding.

Since its establishment in 2001, the San Diego Ethics Commission has a proven track record of monitoring, administering, and enforcing the campaign and governmental ethics laws. The Commission has effectively administered its investigative duties. Furthermore, the degree to which investigations would be shortened by investigative subpoena power is not compelling enough for a change of powers.

RECOMMENDATIONS 16-60 THROUGH 16-64

Below are the Mayor and City Council's responses to Recommendations 16-60 through 16-64:

Recommendation 16-60: Establish a procedure to appoint SDEC members that is independent of elected city officials.

Response: The recommendation will not be implemented because it is not warranted.

As described in the response to Finding 01, the process for choosing individuals to serve on the Ethics Commission is consistent with the appointment process for other boards and commissions to the City of San Diego. The City of San Diego Municipal Code Section 26.0404 specifies background and experience requirements for Ethics Commission members to help ensure a Commission that is qualified and free of bias. Also, the confirmation process for Commissioners is a public process, and members of the public have the opportunity to comment on the qualifications of individuals nominated to serve as Commissioners at a public hearing before the City Council. Lastly, the current process allows for the public's holding of elected City officials accountable for their choices of Commissioners and nominees, whereas an independent appointment body is not accountable to the City electorate.

Recommendation 16-61: Establish SDEC as a permanent body through the City Charter.

Response: The recommendation requires further analysis.

On December 3, 2015 the Charter Review Committee of the San Diego City Council recommended modifying City Charter language to establish the Ethics Commission via the City Charter, rather than by City Council ordinance, as is the current process. Such Charter language is subject to legal review and drafting by the City Attorney's Office, as well as subsequent approval by the City Council as a ballot measure in a citywide election. The next available elections at which such a ballot measure could be considered will be in 2018.

Recommendation 16-62: Change the current term limit for SDEC commissioners to one sixyear term.

Response: The recommendation will not be implemented because it is not warranted.

As explained in the response to Finding 03, under the Grand Jury recommendation, the total time a Commissioner could serve is six years, thereby reducing Ethics Commissioners' potential service-time by two years. We do not agree with the Grand Jury's speculation that there is an issue with Commissioners being denied reappointment as retaliation for their decisions.

Recommendation 16-63: Rename the SDEC to accurately reflect its function.

Response: The recommendation requires further analysis.

On December 3, 2015 the Charter Review Committee recommended renaming the Ethics Commission to the City of San Diego Fair Political Practices Commission. This name would closely track the name of the California Fair Political Practices Commission, which serves a similar function statewide. To effectuate the name change, the City Council can include it in a ballot measure to be put before the City electorate. The next available elections at which such a ballot measure could be considered will be in 2018.

Recommendation 16-64: Expand SDEC subpoena powers to include witnesses.

Response: The recommendation will not be implemented because it is not warranted.

As stated in the response to Finding 05, since its establishment in 2001, the San Diego Ethics Commission has a proven track record of monitoring, administering, and enforcing the campaign and governmental ethics laws. The Commission has effectively administered its investigative duties. Furthermore, the degree to which investigations would be shortened by investigative subpoena power is not compelling enough for a change of powers.
