June 2, 1942.

City Council of San Diego, Calif.

And the City Manager:

Gentlemen:

In duplicate I am writing this (Copy for Cty Manager)
to suggest a WATER ECONOMY--

Vast quantities of water are pouring onto the various GOLF COURSES---- Golf is NOT NECESSARY and GREEN GRASS is not necessary for Golf. Relatively few people of our 300,000 use the Golf Courses. My lawns are to be half watered or not at all.

Practically all the grass in town is "BERMUDA" and want die if left to await the rains.

This suggestion, for what it is worth.

Sincerely

WAB/b
