*Action Items:

1) Fill vacancy created by resignation from GGHPC of Richard Baldwin, for remainder of that vacated term (March 2018

2). “GOAL San Diego” Soccer City initiative to redevelop the Qualcomm Stadium site and associated properties. Sean Duffy. The GGHPC is being asked to endorse the proposal, which is scheduled to appear on the November 2018 ballot.

“Public Land Public Vote” coalition will present on the same subject. Joe LaCava Consider if the GGHPC wants to take a position on the initiative, and if so what.

3) Community Choice Aggregation. CCA is program that allows Cities and other authorized entities to purchase and/or generate electricity for users within their boundaries. This is a follow up from a preliminary presentation at the June 14th meeting of the GGHPC. Climate Action Campaign folks will very briefly reintroduce the concept of Community Choice and then move on to present the key findings of the Feasibility Study.

The GGHPC will be asked to make a recommendation to the City regarding participation in a CCA program.
