INTRODUCTION

R. L. POLK & CO. of California present to subscribers and the general public, this, the 1953-54 edition of the San Diego City Directory, which also includes La Jolla.

Confidence in the continued growth of San Diego's industry, population and wealth, and in the advancement of its civic and social activities, will be maintained as sections of this Directory are consulted, for the Directory is a mirror truly reflecting San Diego to the world.

The enviable position occupied by R. L. POLK & CO.'S Directories in the estimation of the public throughout the country, has been established by rendering the best in Directory service. With an unrivaled organization, and having had the courteous and hearty cooperation of the business and professional men and residents, the publishers feel that the result of their labors will meet with the approval of every user, and that the San Diego Directory will fulfill its mission as a source of authentic information pertaining to the city and vicinity.

Six Major Departments

The six major departments are arranged in the following order:—

THE ALPHABETICAL LIST OF NAMES of residents and business and professional concerns of San Diego and La Jolla is included in pages 21 to 797, on white paper. This is the only record in existence that aims to show the name, marital status, occupation and address of each adult resident of San Diego and La Jolla, and the name, official personnel, nature and address of each firm and corporation.

THE POSTAL ZONE GUIDE, covering San Diego, on pink paper, extends from page 801 to page 804. This section is reproduced verbatim from copy supplied by the postal authorities.

THE DIRECTORY OF HOUSEHOLDERS, INCLUDING STREET AND AVENUE GUIDE, for San Diego and La Jolla, on pink paper, covers pages 805 to 1155. In this section the numbered streets are arranged in numerical order, followed by the named streets in alphabetical order; the numbers of the residences and business concerns are arranged in numerical order under the name of each street, and the names of the householders and concerns are placed opposite the numbers. The names of the intersecting streets appear at their respective crossing points on each street. Special features of this section are the designation of tenant-owned homes and the designation of homes and places of business having telephones.

THE NUMERICAL TELEPHONE DIRECTORY, on blue paper, follows the Directory of Householders and is separately paged from 1 to 117.

THE BUYERS' GUIDE, preceding the Classified and separately paged from 1 to 144, on goldenrod paper, contains the advertisements of leading manufacturing, business and professional interests of San Diego and vicinity. The advertisements are indexed under headings descriptive of the business represented. This is reference advertising at its best, and merits a survey by all buyers eager to familiarize themselves with sources of supply. In a large commercial center and port city like San Diego, the necessity of having this kind of information immediately available, is obvious. General appreciation of this fact is evidenced by the many reference users of this City Directory service.

THE CLASSIFIED BUSINESS DIRECTORY is included in pages 1429 to 1493, on yellow paper. This department lists the names of all business and professional concerns of the whole community in alphabetical order under appropriate headings. This feature constitutes an invaluable and indispensable catalog of the numerous interests of the community. The Directory is the common intermediary between buyer and seller. As such it plays an important part in the daily activities of the commercial and professional world. More buyers and sellers meet through the Classified Business Directory than through any other medium.

Community Publicity

The Directory reflects the achievements and ambitions of the community, depicting in unbiased terms what it has to offer as a place of residence, as a business location, as a port, as a manufacturing site and as an educational center. To broadcast this information, the publishers have placed copies of this issue of the Directory in Directory Libraries, where they are readily available for free public reference, and serve as perpetual and reliable advertisements of San Diego and La Jolla.

The San Diego Directory Library

Through the courtesy of the publishers of the San Diego City Directory, a Directory Library is maintained in the offices of the San Diego Chamber of Commerce, for free reference by the general public. This is one of more than 600 Directory Libraries installed in the chief cities of the U. S. and Canada by members of the Association of North American Directory Publishers, under whose supervision the system is operated.

The publishers appreciatively acknowledge the recognition by those progressive business and professional men who have demonstrated their confidence in the City Directory as an advertising medium, with assurance that it will bring a commensurate return.

General Review

AREA: San Diego County comprises 4,258 square miles, or 2,725,120 acres—approximately the size of the State of Connecticut. The county extends 70 miles along the Pacific Coast northward from the Mexican border, and 80 miles eastward to Imperial Valley.

TOPOGRAPHY: Rising gradually from the ocean beaches on the west, the coastal plain meets the most westerly of the coast foothill ranges at an average distance of ten miles. Inland from this range lie beautiful and fertile valleys, then higher ranges and higher valleys, until the crest of some 6,500 feet is reached in the Cuyamaca Mountains, 40 air-line miles from the coast.

The 1950 Federal Census showed that 999,417 acres (over 35% of total area) in the county are devoted to farming and ranching. The number of farms was 6,696, of which 70% contained less than 50 acres each. Of the total farms, 4,441, with a total acreage of 422,035, are served by irrigation.

San Diego is in the southwest corner of the U. S., located on the shores of a great natural harbor, and is bordered on the west by the Pacific Ocean. To the south, but sixteen miles away, is Old Mexico. Toward the east, and plainly visible from the city streets, are mountain ranges that tower more than a mile above sea level. It is an ideal setting for a great city.

HISTORY: San Diego, "where California began," is the birthplace of civilization on the American Pacific Coast. More than 400 years ago—on Sept. 28, 1542—Juan Rodriguez Cabrillo, Portuguese navigator in the service of Spain, entered the landlocked bay and thus discovered what is now the State of California. In 1602, Don Sebastian Vizcaino surveyed the port and bestowed upon it the name "San Diego."

The first white settlement was established in 1769 by a military expedition from Lower California, attended by Franciscan missionaries under the leadership of Father Junipero Serra. On the present site of Presidio Hill he founded the first of the California missions, the beginning of a chain of 21 that extended up the coast, a day's journey apart, from San Diego to Sonoma. This mission trail became El Camino Real—or "The King's Highway." In 1774, Mission San Diego de Alcala—the mother of the missions—was moved about six miles inland to its present location in Mission Valley. Under Mexican government, San Diego was constituted a pueblo in 1834. The first U. S. flag to fly over southern California was raised at Old San Diego in 1846, by Lieut. Stephen C. Rowan, U. S. N. San Diego was incorporated as an American city in 1850.

Modern San Diego had its beginning in 1867, when Alonzo E. Horton arrived here with a vision of building a great city on the shore of San Diego Bay. He wisely chose a location a few miles south of Old San Diego and subdivided an area which today is the central business district of the city.

The city has made remarkable strides in population and importance. The Panama-California Exposition of 1915-16 and the California Pacific International Exposition of 1935-36, both held in beautiful Balboa Park, attracted the attention of the world. And, because of the climate and other natural advantages, San Diego has become one of the nation's greatest all-year playground and vacation resorts, as well as a naval, military and aviation center. It also has become one of America's leading cities in the manufacture of aircraft and airplane parts.

THE NAVY: No description of San Diego would be adequate which failed to recount the importance of naval activities.

The U. S. Navy has recognized the strategic situation of San Diego on the Pacific Coast, its unrivaled climate and its port facilities, by establishment here of the headquarters of the 11th Naval District.

Climate

The climate and the splendid harbor are unquestionably the city's two greatest assets. Climatologists say that this area's year-around equable climate is unsurpassed. A. W. Anderson, meteorologist in charge of the U. S. Weather Bureau office at San Diego, states that it is questionable whether there is another region of like area where the variety of climate comes so close to filling all demands as in this section of California.

The average rainfall near the ocean during a normal year is only a little over ten inches, but there are places in the mountains where the fall is well over 40 inches, enough to insure adequate water for irrigation and domestic uses. To carry through the long dry summers, when no rain of consequence occurs, an extensive system of reservoirs has been established. These scenic mountain lakes also offer excellent recreation facilities.

The long dry summers are a prominent feature of the climate. Except for an occasional thunderstorm over the higher elevations, the period from June to the end of September is virtually without rain. Contrary to expectations, however, summer temperatures are mild and are rarely high; and the hot, humid weather of the Central and Eastern states is unknown. Thunder and lightning occur so seldom in the coastal belt that they are considered a novelty.

In short, it's a comfortable climate—healthful, balmy and inspiring. From a strictly climatological standpoint, however, the outstanding feature is its equability. The official bulletins of the Weather Bureau describe this region as having the most equable climate in the U. S.
