Rancho Peñasquitos Skate Park Ribbon-Cutting Ceremony

SAN DIEGO – City Councilmember Mark Kersey will host a ribbon-cutting ceremony to commemorate the completion of upgrades at the 22,000 square foot Rancho Peñasquitos Skate Park. This $399,705 renovation project replaced and improved many of the original wooden skate elements with longer lasting and lower maintenance concrete elements, as well as added new steel elements.

When: Tuesday, July 8, 2014 11:00 a.m.

Where: Rancho Peñasquitos Skate Park, San Diego 92129
 10111 Carmel Mountain Road

Note: a parking lot is immediately south of the skate park on Carmel Mountain Road

Who: Councilmember Mark Kersey
 Park and Recreation Director Herman Parker
 Public Works Department – Architectural Engineering and Parks Division
 Deputy Director Mark Nassar
 Rancho Peñasquitos Recreation Council Chair Bill Diehl

Why: The skate park upgrades provide:

- Four new concrete skate features
- New steel grind rails
- Four new shade structures providing approximately 800 square feet of shade
- Revised concrete picnic table skate feature
- Accessible parking and path of travel upgrades
