Ted Williams Parkway Pedestrian Bridge Project Ribbon-Cutting Ceremony

SAN DIEGO --- Assemblymember Brian Maienschein, Congressman Duncan Hunter Jr.'s District Deputy Director Michael Harrison, Councilmember Mark Kersey, and Public Works Department Director and City Engineer James Nagelvoort will host a ribbon-cutting ceremony for the pedestrian bridge over Ted Williams Parkway. This infrastructure project created a safer route for bicyclists, pedestrians, and the area elementary school children to cross the busy six-lane road at Shoal Creek Drive. The distinguished guests will be joined by representatives from Poway Unified School District, staff from the City of San Diego, and community members who collaborated to bring this project to completion.

What: Ribbon-Cutting Ceremony for Ted Williams Parkway Pedestrian Bridge Project

When: Thursday, September 4, 2014
10:30 a.m.

Where: Southeast corner of Ted Williams Parkway at Shoal Creek Drive
No parking on Shoal Creek Drive or Ted Williams Parkway. Parking at the elementary school is very limited. Parking is available on Stoney Gate residential street just north of Ted Williams Parkway.

Who: Assemblymember Brian Maienschein
Congressman Duncan D. Hunter's District Deputy Director Michael Harrison
City of San Diego Councilmember Mark Kersey
Public Works Department Director and City Engineer James Nagelvoort

Why: Ted Williams Parkway Pedestrian Bridge will provide a safer route for the school children, bicyclists, and pedestrians to cross Ted Williams Parkway.
