Central Avenue Mini Park Phase I and II Groundbreaking Ceremony

SAN DIEGO – Mayor Kevin L. Faulconer and City Councilmember Marti Emerald will host a groundbreaking ceremony to celebrate the new Central Avenue Mini Park Phase I and II.

The Central Avenue Mini Park is located on Central Avenue between Landis and Dwight Streets, adjacent to Interstate 15.

In 2007 the City of San Diego acquired this parcel from the California Department of Transportation for the purpose of creating a park for the community.

When: Thursday, October 2, 2014 10:30 a.m.

Where: Central Avenue Mini Park Phase I and II
 3560 Central Avenue, San Diego 92105

Who: Mayor Kevin L. Faulconer
 Councilmember Marti Emerald
 Park and Recreation Director Herman Parker
 Public Works Department – Architectural Engineering and Parks
 Division Deputy Director Mark Nassar

Why: The new park will provide picnic tables, landscaping, playground equipment and a skate plaza for the community.
