Citywide Community Cleanup/Drop-off Event Scheduled at Qualcomm Stadium

RESIDENTS ARE ENCOURAGED TO CLEAN UP THIS WEEKEND FOR NEXT WEEKEND’S CLEANUP EVENT

SAN DIEGO – Looking to clean out your garage or spare bedroom? Need somewhere to get rid of that old appliance, used furniture, mattress or electronics? City of San Diego residents can drop off all that and more unwanted items on Saturday, March 11 at Qualcomm Stadium. Residents are encouraged to start gathering your items this weekend for disposal and recycling next weekend during the event.

“We want to encourage San Diego residents to take advantage of a great service provided by the City to help keep our neighborhoods clean and beautiful,” said Environmental Service Director Mario Sierra. “Simply drop your bulky items at Qualcomm Stadium anytime between 8 a.m. and 1 p.m. on March 11.”

City Councilmembers Scott Sherman and Chris Cate will be co-hosting a pre-cleanup news conference on Thursday, March 9 to provide details about the cleanup and explain why it’s important for residents to participate. Please see attached event flyer and attend the March 9 media event.

- WHAT: News conference about 2017 Community-Wide Cleanup Event
- WHO: Councilmember Scott Sherman, Council District 7
