San Diego Public Library Homework Help Centers Give Away Padres Tickets

DO YOUR HOMEWORK @ THE LIBRARY PROGRAM OFFERS FREE SUPPORT TO COMPLETE SCHOOL ASSIGNMENTS

SAN DIEGO – The San Diego Public Library is offering a unique form of extra credit to students at its Do Your Homework @ the Library homework help centers: baseball tickets! Eighteen homework center locations are offering two tickets to the San Diego Padres final home game of the season at Petco Park on Sunday, Sept. 24, 2017. Library staff will give away tickets to participants who visit any Do Your Homework @ the Library session, while supplies last. The ticket giveaway is made possible by a donation from the Padres in cooperation with the San Diego Public Library Foundation.

The Do Your Homework @ the Library program offers after-school homework help to children in kindergarten through eighth grade. Each of these homework help centers provides a learning coordinator, curriculum-aligned resources to support students and individualized support for students to complete their assignments. Do Your Homework @ the Library participants can also access library Wi-Fi and other digital resources including the HelpNow! online tutoring program.
