Search Warrants Served For Illegal Marijuana Delivery Service

San Diego—October 26, 2017, at approximately 0700 hours, the San Diego Police Department's Narcotics Unit served search warrants at 1843 Grand Ave and 655 6th Ave. These locations were being used to operate an illegal marijuana delivery service called Kings of Green. In addition to vehicle deliveries within San Diego, Kings of Green was delivering marijuana to areas outside of San Diego via the mail.

The search warrant yielded approximately 47 lbs. of high grade marijuana, 120 edibles and concentrated cannabis, multiple ecstasy pills, $2,700 cash, and business documents and records. Two employees, including the owner and an employee were arrested for operating a business without a license and sales of marijuana. These subjects also face additional federal charges for using the US mail to conduct their illegal business. A 3rd subject was arrested and booked into jail for possession of a controlled substance (ecstasy) with intent to sell.
