Statement on City's Decision To Sign Onto Gloucester County School Board v. G.G. Amicus Brief

Councilmember Gómez says the City "Made the Right Choice"

SAN DIEGO – Following Monday's vote by the San Diego City Council to sign onto the Gloucester County School Board v. G.G. Amicus Brief, Councilmember Georgette Gómez issued the following statement:

"Signing onto the Gloucester County School Board v. G.G. Amicus Brief is yet another sign that our City stands by our LGBTQ community and ensures all San Diegans are treated with dignity and respect.

I am very happy to say that the City of San Diego made the right choice to sign onto the amicus brief, given the hostile political climate towards our LGBTQ families; especially our transgender youth. As a queer Latina, I am proud to support this just cause.

Thank you to everyone who came and spoke on this matter, as well as the many others who called and wrote to my office. Your input is always valuable to me."
