Councilmember Georgette Gómez Highlights Importance of Collaboration with San Diego State University

SAN DIEGO – In response to San Diego State University's statement released yesterday, Councilmember Georgette Gómez issued the following statement:

"San Diego State University is an immense resource to our communities and a powerful economic driver in the City of San Diego. The City must do a better job at working with the university and ensure we are cognizant of their growing needs. I am committed to working with SDSU and the community to ensure they continue receiving support from the City and continue to be an asset to our District and the local economy."
