San Diego– On Sunday, February 25, 2018 at 7:30 pm, a 22-year-old woman was walking near the intersection of Iris Ave. and Oro Vista Rd. when an unknown Hispanic male approached her walking from the opposite direction. As he drew near, the suspect grabbed the woman’s breast and then fled southbound on Oro Vista Road. The victim suffered no injuries and no weapon was used or seen.

The suspect is described as a Hispanic male adult in his early-20s, five foot six inches tall, with a heavy build (approximately 220 lbs.). He was last seen wearing a grey hooded sweatshirt with the hood up, black athletic shorts, and black shoes.

Both incidents occurred in the 1500 block of Oro Vista Road and both involved the suspect grabbing women’s breast areas and running off. The suspect description in the previous incidents are similar to those given in the most recent attack.
