

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Wednesday, May 2, 2018

CONTACT: Det. Sgt. Geoffrey DeCesari at (619) 531-2953 or GDecesari@pd.sandiego.gov

ATTEMPT SEXUAL ASSAULT IN OLD TOWN

San Diego- On Tuesday, May 1, 2018, at approximately 12:26 p.m., San Diego Police Communications was contacted regarding an attempted sexual assault in the 4200 block of Taylor Street. San Diego Police Western Division officers responded to the scene.

Through the investigation, it was determined an unknown black male entered the establishment and went into the women's restroom where he attempted to sexually assault the victim with the use of a weapon. The victim was able to run out of the restroom and call police. The suspect fled in an unknown direction.

The San Diego Police Department Sex Crimes Unit was called to the scene and conducted the investigation.

The suspect was described as a Black male with a medium complexion, between 20 to 25-years-old, 5'-5 to 5'7" tall, of muscular build, weighing between 140 -150 lbs., short afro haircut and moustache. The suspect was wearing a black long sleeve fitted t-shirt, tan pants and navy blue Van style slip shoe.

At 1808 hours, San Diego Police Communications received a call from a witness stating he had spotted the suspect at Old State Park. Western Division officers arrived on scene and took the suspect into custody without incident. The suspect was identified as Jason Lee Jones, 31, of San Diego. He was booked into County Jail for 1 count of 220(A) PC / Assault with the Intent to Commit a Sexual Offense and an active parole warrant. The investigation is ongoing and further charges are pending.

Anyone with information regarding this incident is asked to call the Sex Crimes Unit at (619) 531-2210 or Crime Stoppers at (888) 580-8477.