City of San Diego Fire-Rescue Department Honors Firefighters, Lifeguards, EMTs and Civilians at Annual Event

SERVICE AWARDS CEREMONY PRESENTED BY SD FIRE RESCUE FOUNDATION

SAN DIEGO – Each year, the San Diego Fire Rescue Foundation presents the 2018 Service Award Honoree Luncheon which honors the men and women of San Diego Fire-Rescue (SDFD) and American Medical Response (AMR) who performed acts of courage and exemplary service. Awards are presented to firefighters, lifeguards, dispatchers, emergency medical technicians (EMT) and civilians who have gone above and beyond in service to San Diego communities. Awards include: firefighter, paramedic, lifeguard, dispatcher and emergency medical technician of the year as well as citations for lifesaving acts.

“This is a touching and memorable event that celebrates the remarkable work our firefighters, lifeguards, paramedics and civilian staff do on a daily basis,” said Fire Chief Colin Stowell. “Our employees are exemplary people and we are proud to partner with the SD Fire Rescue Foundation in honoring them.”
