Police Investigate Homicide in Old Town Neighborhood

San Diego– On November 14, 2018, at 6:23 p.m., the San Diego Police Department Communications Center received a call from a resident in the 2300 block of Juan Street. The resident said her elderly neighbor was calling for help, saying he had shot his son. Patrol officers arrived a few minutes later and found a deceased male inside with an apparent gunshot wound. The elderly suspect was detained across the street in a neighbor's residence.

San Diego Police Homicide Investigators were called to the scene and are investigating the incident. Investigators are still trying to determine what prompted the shooting, but the suspect and victim are believed to be a father and son who lived together in the residence. The suspect was transported to the Homicide Office for further investigation.

Both individuals have been identified, but their names are not being released at this time. The suspect is 92 years old, and the victim was 51 years old.

Anyone with information regarding this incident is asked to call the Homicide Unit at (619) 531–2293 or Crime Stoppers at (888) 580–8477.
