Top Business Recyclers Recognized at City of San Diego’s Recycler of the Year Event

TEN ORGANIZATIONS RECEIVE AWARD FOR WASTE REDUCTION

SAN DIEGO – The City of San Diego today announced the winners of the annual Recycler of the Year competition. The awards were presented by the City’s Environmental Services Department (ESD) staff at the San Diego Central Library @ Joan A Irwin Jacobs Common.

“We are encouraged by the ways our local businesses and organizations are recycling and helping the City reach its Climate Action Plan and Zero Waste goals,” said Mario X. Sierra, director of the City’s Environmental Services Department. “They dedicate many hours to be more efficient with different waste streams and energy resources and we commend them for their efforts.”

The Recycler of the Year awards are presented to the City’s most progressive recyclers of all sizes in the local business and nonprofit communities. The City annually recognizes businesses and organizations located within the City that have implemented or expanded innovative and successful waste reduction, recycling and recycled product purchasing programs.

Winners of the Recycler of the Year award are:

Café Gratitude
 Cox Communications, Inc.
 Feeding San Diego
 General Dynamics NASSCO
 I Love A Clean San Diego

Port of San Diego
 San Diego Convention Center
 San Diego County Regional Airport Authority
 San Diego Zoo Global
 Qualcomm Incorporated

The City provides local businesses with assistance in developing waste reduction and recycling programs with a free comprehensive waste analysis. For more information, call 858-694-7000 or visit www.recyclingworks.com.
