Free City of San Diego Water Conservation 2020 Calendar Now Available

NEW COLORFUL CALENDAR FEATURES AWARD-WINNING ARTWORK BY LOCAL STUDENTS AND WATER SAVING TIPS

SAN DIEGO – The City of San Diego’s new 2020 Kids’ Poster Contest Calendar, featuring winning artwork focused on water conservation, is now available free while supplies last. This is the 20th year the calendar has been produced by the City’s Public Utilities Department.

“The children’s artwork in these calendars is fantastic, and helps present the importance of reducing water use,” said Shauna Lorange, Director of the Public Utilities Department. “I encourage San Diegans to pick up a calendar and learn about water conservation all year.”

More than 100 San Diego children entered the Kids’ Poster Contest last year. The 19 award-winning posters are featured in the 2020 calendar. The student artists include:
