Murder-Suicide in Roseville/Fleet Ridge Neighborhood

San Diego – On May 16, 2022, at approximately 7:30 p.m., the San Diego Police Communications received a call of a suicide in the 3400 block of Lowell Street. Officers from Western Division responded to the call and located a male and a female down with gunshot wounds inside of their residence. Officers performed lifesaving measures until San Diego Fire-Rescue personnel arrived and took over. Unfortunately, both people were pronounced deceased at the scene.

The deceased male has been identified, however his name is not being released at this time. He is described as an 86-year-old white male.

The deceased female has been identified, however her name is not being released at this time. She is described as an 83-year-old white female.

San Diego Homicide Detectives responded to investigate. The preliminary investigation indicates that this incident was a murder-suicide. The male and female were husband and wife. It appears that the male shot the female and then shot himself. Detectives worked through the scene to gather evidence and interview witnesses.

Anyone with information regarding this incident is encouraged to call the Homicide Unit at (619) 531-2293 or Crime Stoppers at (888) 580-8477.
