San Diego Police Arrest Babysitter in Three Child Molestation Cases, Seek Other Victims

San Diego - Detectives with the San Diego Police Department's Child Abuse Unit arrested 22-year-old Zayne St. Julien of Poway in connection with a series of child molestation cases.

The incidents happened between July and December 2022 and involved three unrelated boys who at the time were seven, eight, and 11-years old. Investigators are now looking for additional victims. In each case, the boys' parents hired St. Julien, who was employed by a babysitting website named SitterCity. One of the parents reported the molestation of her child to SDPD in November. Detectives immediately began to investigate and with the assistance of SitterCity personnel, two other boys were identified as victims. Their parents reported their children's molestations to detectives in December. St. Julien reportedly committed each molestation in the boys' homes.

On December 20th, SDPD detectives, with the assistance of the San Diego Harbor Police Department, arrested St. Julien as he was disembarking an airplane at San Diego International Airport. He was booked into San Diego County Jail on several child molestation charges.

This investigation is ongoing. We are asking anyone with information regarding these incidents, or believes St. Julien may have targeted other victims, to call the San Diego Police Department Child Abuse Unit at (619) 531-2260 or Crime Stoppers at (888) 580-8477.
