PUBLIC NOTICE

Date: April 21, 2023

Subject: Updates to the City of San Diego's standard building templates and notes sheets

The City of San Diego's standard building templates and standard notes sheets have been updated to the current 2022 Building Standards Codes.

Using the following plan template cover sheets when submitting for building permits, the review process can be shortened. The use of plan templates should provide all of the standard required information at the first submittal, reducing the number of comments from reviewers.

New templates and sheets are available in CADD and PDF format at <https://www.sandiego.gov/development-services/forms-publications/design-guidelines-templates>
