Subject: Urban Parkways Design Workshop

On Wednesday, May 31, 2023, from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m., the City of San Diego's Development Services Department (DSD) will host an in-person workshop on urban parkways design. The workshop will take place at the Logan Heights Library – Community Room 567, S. 28th St., San Diego, CA 92113.

Staff from DSD and representatives from the Planning, Transportation, and Sustainability & Mobility Departments, will guide attendees through a better understanding of the City's Parkway Requirements incorporating Complete Communities, various Community Plan land use requirements, and the Street Design Manual.

Target audience includes residential infill developers who bring projects from initial concept to fruition, as well as architectural and engineering design professionals who sign and stamp plans for compliance with the San Diego Municipal Code.

Space is limited, and those interested in attending the workshop are required to RSVP to Monica Pastrana at mpastrana@sandiego.gov. There is not a virtual option for the workshop, but the presentations and meeting summary will be made available publicly on the DSD website after the meeting.
