San Diego, California, December 29, 1914.

Mr. Keno Wilson,
Chief of Police,
San Diego, Cal.

Dear Sir:-

In behalf of the Panama-California Exposition I wish to request that if possible you have appointed to act as Special Policemen, (without pay), from date of appointment to January 1st, 1916, the list of local men hereto attached. These men are all either directly connected as Directors or Officials of the Exposition, or business men of the City, who will probably be asked to act in different capacities in behalf of the Exposition next year, and we feel that they should be appointed as Special Policemen to aid you if you so desire, and to be an additional help to the Exposition and City.

The following list we would appreciate if the same were appointed for this term:

- ✓ F. J. Belcher, Jr.
- ✓ H. H. Jones
- ✓ C. L. Williams
- Percy H. Goodwin
- ✓ M. F. Heller
- G. A. Davidson
