Six-Year-Old Boy Killed in Traffic Collision

San Diego - A two-vehicle collision in Kensington this morning took the life of a young boy. Just before 8:00 a.m., a 45-year-old man was driving a Jeep Grand Cherokee southbound on 4700 Biona Drive with his 6-year-old son and 8-year-old daughter in the rear seats. Both children were in safety seats. As their vehicle was crossing the intersection with Adams Avenue, they were struck by a Hyundai Sonata that was traveling eastbound on Adams Avenue. The collision caused the Jeep to overturn.

The boy suffered serious injuries. He was transported to the hospital and despite the best efforts of medical personnel, he did not survive his injuries. The adult driver of the Jeep and the 8-year-old girl were not injured. The 20-year-old driver in the Hyundai suffered minor injuries.

Drugs and/or alcohol were not a factor in the collision.

The investigation is ongoing. Anyone with information, is asked to call the San Diego Police Department at 619-531-2000, or the anonymous Crime Stoppers tip line at 888-580-8477.
