

2024 Preservation Awards

Announcing the 2024 Preservation Awards

The City Planning Department is pleased to announce the return of the City of San Diego's Preservation Awards!

The Historical Resources Board and City of San Diego wishes to recognize preservation projects, activities, and people with an outstanding commitment to historic preservation. The winners will be announced in May to commemorate National Historic Preservation Month and will be celebrated at the May Historical Resources Board meeting.

Projects must be located in the city limits and have been completed after January 2016 to be nominated. Work must be substantially completed by January of the current year. Rehabilitation projects must follow the Secretary of the Interior's Standards for Rehabilitation.

Nominations must be received no later than April 5, 2024 and should be submitted using the online form submission.

Nominations will be accepted under the following categories:

- Preservation Projects
 - Rehabilitation or Restoration Projects
 - Adaptive reuse of historic buildings, structures, sites, or cultural landscapes
 - Archaeology Projects
- Preservation Activities
 - Activities related to the identification, protection, and interpretation of historic or tribal/cultural resources.
 - Innovative efforts in historic preservation education, public outreach, or interpretive programs.
 - Local, State, and National Register nominations that significantly contribute to our knowledge of historic resources and/or contexts.
 - Projects that demonstrate new or novel approaches to the protection of historic and/or prehistoric archaeological sites.
 - Exemplary historical research projects, including oral histories.
 - Exemplary stewardship of historic places.

- People in Preservation

- Organizations or individuals who have shown exemplary leadership or dedication to preservation. (Nominations of those individuals and groups working at a grassroots level are especially encouraged)
- Eligible nominees will have made significant contributions over time to the advancement of historic preservation and/or the preservation of historical resources in San Diego.
- Individuals may not self-nominate.

Special consideration will be given to preservation projects and activities that:

- Add additional housing units to an existing site through adaptive reuse, rehabilitation, or new construction on a historic site.
- Demonstrate and promote sustainability and/or climate change resiliency.
- Broaden the ethnic and cultural diversity of historic preservation activities.

How to Apply

Nominations will be accepted through the online form submission between February 12, 2024 and April 5, 2024.

Projects must have been completed after January 2016 to be nominated. Work must be substantially completed by January of this year (2024).

Questions?

Email historicplanning@sandiego.gov