Mt. Carmel High School Teacher Arrested for Sexual Assault of a Student

Investigators Are Seeking Witnesses and Potential Victims

San Diego – San Diego Police Department Sex Crimes Unit has arrested a 39-year-old teacher for the sexual assault of a student. The assault took place over a sustained period from 2017 to 2019. The teacher, Stacy Michelle Walker, began engaging the 15-year-old victim in conversations that became sexual in nature. The victim and suspect then exchanged numerous photographs, videos, and explicit text messages. Walker also met with the victim several times and engaged in various sex acts. The sexual assaults continued until after the victim turned 18-years-old.

The SDPD Sex Crimes Unit immediately began its investigation when the victim reported the assault to the San Diego Police Department on July 31, 2023. On March 20, SDPD detectives arrested Walker and booked her into Las Colinas County Jail. Arraignment is scheduled for Friday, March 22 at 1:30 p.m. in Department 101 of the San Diego Superior Court downtown.

Anyone with information regarding this incident or believes they know or are the victim of a similar assault should call the SDPD Sex Crimes Unit at (619) 531-2210 or Crime Stoppers at (888) 580-8477.
