STORM DAMAGE

RESOURCES AND CONTACT INFORMATION

The City of San Diego is working to respond and assess damage from the storm that occurred on Monday, Jan. 22. Resources are available for residents who were impacted.

TRASH AND DEBRIS

Crews from the City's Environmental Services Department will be deployed to remove trash and debris impacting the public right of way.

Call 858-694-7000 or report to SanDiego.gov/Get-It-Done

- Trash or recycling container replacements
- If you need assistance with trash, debris or bulky items (report as Illegal Dumping on Get It Done)

The City cannot accept hazardous waste materials including light bulbs, paint, oil, batteries, propane tanks, gas cylinders and tires.

STREETS AND SIDEWALKS

We are clearing streets and sidewalks of mud as quickly as possible.

Call 619-527-7500

- If your street is experiencing flooding or if you see City storm drains that are clogged
- To report damage to sidewalks or streets

PROPERTY DAMAGE

If your home or vehicle has been damaged, please file a claim with your insurance company (renters insurance, homeowners insurance, vehicle insurance.)

Please also report property damage:
