Councilmember Moreno Statement on May Revision to the Fiscal Year 2025 Proposed Budget

SAN DIEGO – Last week, the San Diego City Council heard an informational presentation of the May Revision to the Mayor’s Fiscal Year 2025 Proposed Budget. Councilmember Vivian Moreno has issued the following statement:

“The Proposed Fiscal Year 2025 Budget remains deeply flawed. Although some services and programs that were cut in the original proposed budget have been restored, underserved communities have received the brunt of the remaining budget reductions. While some services are being enhanced in more affluent areas of San Diego, critical programs that help San Diegans in some of our most vulnerable communities continue to either not be funded or vastly reduced. As the City Council is set to finalize next year’s budget in the coming weeks, I will continue to fight for these critical programs to stay in place so that all communities receive equal treatment by the city.”
