SAN DIEGO (June 21, 2024) – After an extensive national search, which included the involvement of a community panel, the San Diego City Council is expected to appoint Paul Parker as the new Executive Director of the Commission on Police Practices.

The Executive Director will oversee the Commission’s mission to hold the San Diego Police Department accountable to the community and to increase community trust in law enforcement, resulting in increased safety for both the community and officers.

“The Commission on Police Practices enthusiastically welcomes Paul Parker as our new Executive Director, pending a final vote by the City Council. Paul is a visionary who thinks out of the box to problem solve. He is a proven change agent who has experience working with law enforcement and the community, and he knows San Diego well. Paul will be a valuable asset as the Commission builds a strong foundation and becomes an exemplary model of civilian oversight. We look forward to working with Paul,” said Gloria Tran, Chair, Commission on Police Practices.
