Councilmember Stephen Whitburn Addresses the Need for Permanent Shelter Options

SAN DIEGO, CA – “Every day, homeless people ask for shelter but are turned away and forced to live outdoors because there are no beds available. That is unacceptable. We must act with urgency to expand our shelter capacity so that no one seeking a safe place to stay is left on the streets.”

“I look forward to a robust discussion on potential shelter options, particularly at the site of the old Central Library. We need real solutions now to address this crisis and provide immediate relief for those in need.”
