

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Thursday, May 1, 2025

Contact: Detective Sergeant Paul Tom at (619) 692-4800 or Ptom@pd.sandiego.gov

Suspect Arrested in Stabbing of Two Males in Ocean Beach

On April 13, 2025, at approximately 1:08 AM, the San Diego Police Communications Center received a report of a stabbing at Bacon Street and Newport Avenue in the Ocean Beach neighborhood. Officers from Western Division responded quickly and located two victims suffering from multiple stab wounds. The victims were transported to the hospital by Paramedics for treatment.

The first victim is described as a 36-year-old White male. He suffered multiple stab wounds and is expected to survive. The second victim is described as a 29-year-old White male. He suffered from multiple stab wounds and is expected to survive. The identity of the victims will not be released at this time.

Western Division investigations received information from the community, and after a thorough investigation it appears the suspect and victims are unknown to each other. One of the victims was involved in a confrontation with an unrelated victim that led up to the stabbing. During the investigation, Jana Nicole Halaska of San Diego was identified as the suspect in this case.

On April 29, 2025, at approximately 4:30 p.m., Jana Halaska was taken into custody in the 400 block of Robinson Avenue. She is described as a 29-year-old White female. She was subsequently booked into Las Colinas Detention Facility for one count of Attempted Murder, one count of Assault with a Deadly Weapon, and one count of Possession of a Controlled Substance.

Anyone with information regarding this incident is encouraged to call Western Division at (619) 692-4000 or Crime Stoppers at (888) 580-8477.

###