Man Stabbed to Death in Logan Heights

San Diego – A man was stabbed to death inside his makeshift transient camp.

On July 4, 2025, at about 1:14 am., San Diego Police Communications received a report of a stabbing near the intersection of 21st Street and Commercial Boulevard. Officers responded and located someone who appears to be a Black or Hispanic male in his late 20's just outside of an encampment behind the Walmart building suffering from at least one stab wound. Life saving measures were performed at the scene and the man was transported to a nearby hospital, but he did not survive his injuries.

Following the stabbing, a male and female, both possibly homeless, were seen leaving the area in different directions. The male is described as White or Hispanic, bald, and stocky. He was wearing a hat and a baby blue shirt. The female is described as White, 40s to 50s, about 5' 9" with a thin build, brown hair in a ponytail, wearing a black sweater over a white shirt, black leggings, and heavy mascara.

Homicide detectives are currently investigating the case. Anyone with information regarding this incident is asked to call the Homicide Unit at (619) 531-2293 or Crime Stoppers at (888) 580-8477.
