Suspicious Death in Rolando Area

San Diego – A woman was found dead inside her apartment in the Rolando area early Tuesday morning.

On July 16, 2025, at about 1:37 a.m., a man called San Diego Police and reported that his wife fell to the ground and was not breathing. Officers and medics responded to the apartment, located at 4333 College Avenue, and found the man performing CPR on his wife. Unfortunately, the woman did not survive. She is described as a 37-year-old white female.

On closer examination, officers observed some minor, but unexplained injuries on the woman and notified the Homicide Unit. Out of an abundance of caution, homicide investigators responded to the scene and will be handling the investigation. The woman's name is being withheld at this time pending family notifications. The husband remained on scene and has been cooperative with the investigation.

Investigators will be working in the area throughout the day. Anyone with information regarding this incident is asked to call the Homicide Unit at (619) 531-2293 or Crime Stoppers at (888) 580-8477.
