One Arrested in Nestor Shooting

San Diego – Two men were killed inside separate camper trailers inside a fenced storage lot in the Nestor neighborhood.

On August 30, 2025, at about 3:25 a.m., San Diego Police received multiple reports of gunfire in the area of 2002 Sunset Avenue, about a mile and a half north of the Mexican border. The property is divided into multiple individually fenced industrial storage lots. Officers responded to the location and found two deceased adult men inside separate camper trailers. The first victim has been identified as 42-year-old Aaron Cruz. The second victim has been identified as 64-year-old Richard Hartung. Both men lived in campers at the location.

With the assistance of city owned and private security cameras, investigators developed information about a possible suspect vehicle, a red Chevy Suburban. Investigators canvassed the area and located a similar vehicle.

On September 2, at about 12:45 p.m., a traffic stop was conducted on the Suburban in the area of 130 West Calle Primera. The driver was subsequently arrested. He has been identified as 24-year-old David Verduzco Kruglova, who is a Hispanic man. Kruglova was booked into County Jail on two counts of murder.

Anyone with information regarding this incident is asked to call the Homicide Unit at (619) 531-2293 or Crime Stoppers at (888) 580-8477.
