Victim Identified in Ocean Beach Shooting

San Diego — A man was shot and killed in Ocean Beach.

On September 10, 2025, at about 11:29 p.m., San Diego Police Communications received a report of a shooting in the area of 5000 Newport Avenue in Ocean Beach. Officers arrived on scene and located an adult man suffering from at least one gunshot wound to his upper body. Officers and medics rendered aid at the scene, but unfortunately, the man did not survive. The victim is now identified as 22-year-old Joseph Bojorquez Jr., described as a mixed-race male from San Diego.

Homicide detectives were called to the scene to investigate. Investigators have learned the decedent was involved in a confrontation with two men in a parking lot. The victim punched one of the men, at which time the second man produced a handgun and shot the decedent. The shooter and his companion fled the area on foot west down the north alley of 5000 Newport Avenue, then turned north toward Santa Monica Avenue. Photographs of two persons of interest were distributed to media on Friday, September 12, 2025.

Anyone with information regarding this incident is asked to call the Homicide Unit at (619) 531-2293 or Crime Stoppers at (888) 580-8477.
