One Killed in Ocean Beach Shooting

San Diego — A man was shot and killed early Saturday morning in the Ocean Beach neighborhood.

On November 8, 2025, at about 12:23 a.m., San Diego Police received a report of gunshots near the Ocean Beach Pier. Officers responded and were directed to the victim, who was described as a Hispanic man in his thirties. Officers and medics rendered aid to the man, but he did not survive his injuries. He has not yet been identified.

Officers learned there was a group of at least two men and two women, all Hispanic and aged 25-30 years old, who were hanging out in the area of the pier parking lot for a period of time, before walking south to 5100 Narragansett Avenue near the shoreline. After the shots, the group returned to the pier lot, got into two vehicles, and drove away east on Newport Avenue. The vehicles are described as a white sedan and blue and/ or grey SUV. One of these vehicles may have struck another vehicle as it left the area.

Homicide detectives were called to the scene to investigate and are currently interviewing witnesses and canvassing for security video. Anyone with information regarding this incident is asked to call the Homicide Unit at (619) 531-2293 or Crime Stoppers at (888) 580-8477.
