

University Community Planning Group Notice of Elections for the Executive Board

March 10, 2026

The University Community Planning Group (UCPG) will hold its annual March 2026 election for four residential seats for terms beginning April 14, 2026. There are no business seats to be elected this time.

For this year’s election we’re pleased to offer drop off ballot boxes at the two UC libraries for your convenience. We encourage all UCPG members to take advantage of this and cast your vote. Details are found below.

Who can vote? This has changed – read carefully.

All residents of the community 18 years or older may vote in person in a UCPG election, regardless of current membership in the UCPG. You must show a valid ID of some kind that shows residency in the UC planning area (see map, p.4). If you are not a UCPG member, you will be asked to sign up. UCPG membership is free, never expires, and you won’t be contacted. Our UCPG community includes the area shown on the map on page 4, including residents of the UC San Diego Campus.

UCPG members may vote using drop off ballot boxes located at our two community libraries, or in person on March 10, 2026, at 9880 Campus Point Drive, third floor patio area, from 5-8 PM. If you are a UCPG member, you may follow the procedures below.
